FARMER'S WIVES

Are generally good judges of all kinds of Groceries.

They want a good article and want to get it as cheaply as possible—in other words, they want to make their butter and egg money go as far as possible in buying the family groceries.

Fresh Crackers, Fresh Oatmeal, Pure Spices, Good Tea and Coffee.

are all important items that enter into every day use in almost every home in the country. There is a big difference in the quality of all of these articles—for instance, some crackers are stale and have an old, musty taste, some oatmeal is full of husks and has a disagreeable flavor, and in teas and coffees you can get a much better one for 25c at some places than you can at others. Now to the point I wish to make. I claim that in all these items I sell the very best that can be had, and by buying from me you are always certain of getting something that is nice and will please you.

Killed by Lightning.

Owosso has been visited during the week by two severe electrical storms, the first one Sunday morning doing but little damage. The second storm came Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock and lasted two hours, doing much damage about the city, beside injuring several people and killing Cias. Moss, a laborer employed by M. L. Parker at his brick yard. Mr. Moss had recently moved into his new home at the corner of Freeman and Henry streets and was killed while eating his supper, being alone at the time, his little niece having gone home when the storm arose. When she returned she found Mr. Moss in an unconscious condition. Help was immediately summoned but death came in a few minutes. Mr. Moss was a hard working industrious man, and a member of the Foresters, in which order he carried an insurance policy payable to his mother. The funeral was held yesterday from the Evangelical Lutheran Salem church, Rev. Paul Kouka officiating.
